

238 If pedestrians use the centre of the road as a refuge when crossing, drive slowly and allow ample clearance between them and your vehicle. Do not drive too close to them as it may force them to move backwards into the path of other vehicles.

239 When you are turning into a side road, look out for pedestrians.

240 Motorists turning left to join the main traffic from a side road should look out for pedestrians from the left.

241 On a road without a pavement or pedestrian footpath, do not drive too close to the pedestrians.
